processesPunctual delivery of post-confirmation supplies “is critical” for the recovery of a bankrupt company and especially “for those suppliers ... who will be impacted” by the company’s liquidation.

The Deloitte lawyer, also heading up a special group of liquidators, says the liquidator is keen to “remove what are considered to be the significant risks associated with creditor led insolvency (where unsecured creditors go to court and petition for creditor protection before creditors’ debts are actually discharged)”. He told the inquest: “It is clear that the orderly administration of a company’s affairs is vitally important to the effective administration of a company’s liquidation.” He added: “Punctual delivery of post-confirmation supplies is critical and an important component of an effective and efficient administration of a liquidation.” Mr Stawell was forced to acknowledge that the supply of post-confirmation goods was “not always timely” but he said it had improved in recent months. @B19],[@B20]\]. In this study, a significantly higher percentage of patients with severe lesions (B4 and B5) were diagnosed before the age of 50 and had lower median age than those with mild lesions (B1, B2 and B3).

This may be a result of the fact that patients with severe lesions are generally more adherent and are more likely to seek medical advice. This finding has also been observed in a recent study by Fujiwara et al. \[[@B21]
